The Property

Strathmore Court is an elegant, contemporary mansion block located in St John's Wood NW8. The apartments benefit from stunning green views over Regent's Park, lift, porter and is a stones throw away from Lords Cricket ground, London Zoo and the award winning St John's Wood High Street with a wealth of boutique shops, bars and restaurants.

The flats within this block are ideally suited to young professionals or students studying due to its excellent location close to the West End and transport links, as well as a number of top colleges and universities such as Regents Business School and University of Westminster.
